Last Town Wide Meeting: After having had several meetings with Fr. Joseph Busch, Episcopal Vicar and Tom Cronin, Director of Evangelization & Strategic Planning for the Diocese, the community of St. James realizes there is a possibility their church may close. The next Town Wide Meeting will be scheduled when there is something new to report.

Diocesan Assessment Appeal

This year's theme for the Diocesan Appeal is "Restore to me the joy of your Salvation and uphold me with a willing spirit". Psalm 51:14.

Blessed Sacrament has collected $16,868 with 46 gifts, which is 55% of our Appeal. We need $14,175 to reach our goal.

St. James has collected $2,963 with 12 gifts, which is 60% of our Appeal. We need $2,037 to reach our goal.

We are stewards of the Roman Catholic faith, working together to serve our Master up here in God's Country, the beautiful Adirondacks. We look for 100% participation not equal sacrifice. The amount not collected will be taken out of our operating funds, putting a strain on our budget.

You can mail a check payable to the Diocesan Appeal, 40 N. Main Avenue, Albany, NY 12203 or go online at www.thediocesanappeal.org

St. James' Assessment is $5,000

St. Isaac Jogues' Assessment is $18,357

Bl. Sacrament's Assessment is $31,043
